

JUNIOR COMPOSITE DESIGN ENGINEER

The company is looking for a Junior Composite Design Engineer.

The junior designer will be included in the composite component design team to work mainly in the Motorsport sector.

The candidate will be responsible for the following activities:

The resource will be trained to learn business software and methodologies in order to learn how to engineer parts through solid and surface modeling and 2D drawing.

Requirements:

- Master's degree
- It is a title of merit to have carried out the Formula SAE
- 3D CAD software experience welcome but not required
- Seriousness, attitude to teamwork, availability, motivation and good interpersonal skills are a fundamental part of the required profile.