

RACE ENGINEER

The company is looking for a Race Engineer candidate.

The candidate will be responsible for the following activities:

- The Race Engineer will be responsible to deliver test plan for vehicle development program.
- He will be responsible for all aspects of the car before, during and after the tests: from car preparation/setup, driver interaction to performance analysis/report.
- He will closely work with data engineer to analyze and understand car performance.
- He will be responsible to deliver the test's output back to the design office and closely support the design office to define
- He will be responsible to setting up of IT and radio system equipment on track.
- He will assist in the operation of the garage and its infrastructure.
- He will work following processes and procedures of the Race Engineering department.
- Assumes responsibilities and duties delegated by the Chief Race Engineer
- He will directly report to the Chief Race Engineer.

Requirements:

- High-level management and leadership skills with a confidence inspiring communicative
- Mechanical Engineering Degree with strong Science, Physics and Data driven background;
- Proven track record in high-level Race Engineering experience incl. motorsport complete car development program (testing);
- In-depth knowledge of vehicle dynamics and intervention control systems;
- Organizational skills; keeping detailed notes and writing up projected outlines and proposals;
- Ability to perform in a dynamic and fast paced environment;
- Ability to communicate professionally, both verbally and in writing (English is a must and Italian is a plus);
- Data analysis and simulation software skills;
- Ability to think outside the box;
- The role may require extensive domestic and international travel and a willingness to work long and flexible hours including weekends.