

SENIOR COMPOSITE DESIGNER

The company is looking for a Senior Composite Designer.

The designer will be included in the design team of structural and non-structural composite components such as frames, bodywork, energy absorption structures, etc ...

The candidate will be responsible for the following activities:

- Deal with the engineering of parts through solid and surface modeling, 2D drawing and generation of 2D / 3D ply books, also including the design of the tooling necessary for the industrialization of components such as models, molds and gluing equipment.

Requirements:

- Technical diploma and excellent knowledge of technical drawing (table setting, tolerances, dimensions, etc);
- Experience of at least 3 years in design activities with Catia V5 or NX (composites, solids, surfaces) gained in medium / high complexity contexts, eg. week Automotive, Aeronautics, Motorsport;
- Teamcenter PDM knowledge is welcome but not required;
- Seriousness, teamwork aptitude, availability, motivation, reliability, autonomy, flexibility and good interpersonal skills are a fundamental part of the required profile.